

The Chocolate Stone

Chocolate was made at Stratford Hall in the 18th century by grinding toasted cocoa beans on the chocolate stone placed over hot coals. The ground beans melted forming a chocolatey mixture to which sugar and spices were added. See if you can find the chocolate stone in the Kitchen!