Take-down will begin promptly at 4 pm on Sunday, September 21 and should conclude by 5 pm. The visitor experience is of utmost importance, so you may not begin take down until the festival site has cleared and the Stratford staff has given verbal instructions to begin take down. Vendors who disregard this request will be assessed a $25 fine and will be in jeopardy of future festival participation.

Set-up and take-down is allowed through pre-determined points on the Oval. Please be prompt and move as quickly as possible as we have a limited window of time to move vendors on and off the Oval, which is the circular area of the festival.

Advertising:

As vendors you may be highlighted on our website, Facebook, Instagram and other marketing material in the weeks leading up to the event. We'll pull from the photos you submit in your application or from your feeds with your permission, so make sure to send us images you're proud to share!

We encourage vendors to advertise through their own social media platforms as well!

Vendors are prohibited from using Stratford Hall's logo for any events not attended or applied for with permission.

Electricity and Wifi:

Access to electricity will be prioritized for breweries, wineries, distilleries, oyster growers and food vendors. Connection is not guaranteed; vendors should be prepared to operate business as usual in the event Stratford Hall loses access to electricity on the festival site.

Wifi is anticipated to be available to vendors; however, connection may be slow or disrupted due to volume. Network and login information will be provided during event set-up. Throughout the festival, please limit Wifi use to business-only activities.

Other:

Stratford Hall does not provide ice to vendors. Please plan accordingly and bring coolers of ice if you need any.

Stratford Hall staff and festival volunteers are not available to help unload your vehicles and assist with set-up. We do not provide volunteers to help work your booth. Please staff your booth accordingly.

Fees:

Payment is due with vendor application.

Vendor Cancellation:

For those who decide not to participate, we will be sad to see you go, but we will refund your fees only until a specific date (June 17). After that date, fees are non-refundable.
